THAT INDEMNITY

To the Editor, The News:

I have noticed in the Advocate that Mr. Galbraith thought that the Red Deer Local had been so severe in their resolution. His criticism has disappointed myself and a great many others. The way we see it is that those Legislators actually voted themselves "money" that they knew they had not earned. Having done so, I and my fellow farmers think they are neither suited nor worthy for the position they are holding. I have been a member of the U.P.A. since its inception, and I am naturally concerned. If not looked at in its proper light, can only bring a disaster. Thanking you, I remain, yours truly,

J. J. RICHARDS

ALBERTA MINISTER ON THE INDEMNITY

A. W. Martin, Esq.,
Red Deer, Alberta.

I have read with interest the copy you have sent me of the resolutions passed by the Red Deer Local of the U.P.A. on Saturday evening, August 19th, concerning the indemnity of $250,000. I am glad to see that the Legislature for the recent special session. You will, I am sure, be glad to know that the great majority of the Farmer members voted against the amendment for the increasing of the indemnity proposed by the government. My own opinion was that the "Noes" were in the majority when the vote was taken; the chairman, however, ruled otherwise.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEWS

Why do you express so much surprise over this $250 indemnity? Did you ever in your life see a man, or a party of men, that claimed a monopoly on righteousness, ever do anything else than help themselves to all the good things of the man or men that cry "thief, thief?"

O how those members did long for an opportunity to help others. They were going to be the shining light in the world. They were going to be the "clean government." They opened their conventions with prayer. "O God, Christian Soldiers."

Well, the members cut the mother allowance, and raised their taxes. They will give them to buy a silk handkerchief to wipe from their eyes the crocodile tears. They will give them to buy a pair of shoes and a new coat. That is human nature—just so with prohibitionists—everyone of them. They will give them to buy a pair of shoes and a new coat. ## FIRE UNDERWRITERS REPORT NUMEROUS WIRING DEFECTS

The report of the inspectors who visited Red Deer a short time ago representing the Western Canada Fire Underwriters' Association, has been published, and was read to the City Council at the regular meeting on Monday evening. The report is very exhaustive, dealing with conditions from every angle. Serious fault is found with the installation of the electric wiring throughout the city, and this applies both to outside and inside work. The building by-law is said to be very incomplete, and the absence of any electrical by-law is viewed unfavorably.

CONOR NEWS

MINING VENTURE IS MAKING GOOD

Ald. C. T. Elme confirms Press Reports of Rich Mineral Deposits.

Ald. C. T. Elme arrived in the city on Sunday, accompanied by Frank Pettigrew, having motored from Spokane.

The company known as the Cynide Mining Co. have secured some of its valuable holdings to the Yank Mining and Power Co. of Spokane, for the sum of $100,000. Do not fail to see these wonderful gardens this week.

WE WONDER!

We wonder how the "Independent" member, Robert Pettigrew, dealt out to the members of the provincial house over the $250 indemnity, for which he was the mover.

A supporter of the U.P.A. government.

How ya gin' to keep the boys down on the farm when there's a Stampede on in Red Deer?

THE PRESS CONVENTION

The Weekly Press Convention, at Vernon, B. C., last week was without doubt one of the most enjoyable ever held by the press men of Alberta, from the standpoint of pleasure, and the most enlightening and profitable from the standpoint of instruction. The hospitality of the Okanagan Valley people will long be remembered by the members of the press associations of Alberta, British Columbia and the Yukon. The hearts of the visitors were touched by the many acts of kindness extended to them and the vibrations on the strings of our hearts will, we feel sure, extend over many moons. The News wishes to particularly mention the splendid efforts of Louis J. Ball, of the Vernon News, President of the B. C. Press Association, in making the convention the success it was, and we feel sure he will convey to Vernon City, to Calona, to Sumnerland and the Penitentiary people the thanks of the Press for their many acts of kindness while enjoying their hospitality. Next week we will speak of the Okanagan and the convention.

"NO REASON"

(Winnipeg Tribune)
A slightly different version of the remarks of Mr. H. W. Wood, of Calgary, at the time of the final collapse of the Wheat Board scheme for this year, is contained in "The U.F.A." of which Mr. Wood is the editor. The telegraphed interview had appeared in the paper, and it is left to the impression that Mr. Wood was endorsing the views of those who were advancing the hostility of the grain trade as the reason why the Board could not function.

Mr. Wood has no such delusion. The U.F.A. contains the following:

President Wood remarked that the men who had been asked to act on the Board had reached the conclusion that the federal legislation which provided for it was not sufficiently comprehensive and did not give them adequate powers.

"There is no reason," he added, "why we should have federal legislation to remove the objections which have been raised this year. We must have centralized selling of wheat, and must prepare now for centralized selling next year."

"There is no reason," verily. There was no reason why such legislation could not have been passed last session—no reason, that is, save the complete determination of the Mackenzie King government not to pass such legislation, and the acquiescence of the Progressives in the compromise legislation embodying the abortive scheme that they finally brought West with them.

Mr. Wood puts his finger on the central fact of the whole proceedings when he says that the federal legislation was not sufficiently comprehensive and did not provide the Board with adequate powers. He gives the complete answer to those who are advising the farmers to go ahead on the basis of this legislation and try to organize a Board to control the marketing of the crop of 1923.

What the farmers have to do, if

Drury Acknowledges Defeat; Will Organize New Party

Ottawa, August 19th, 1922.—The premier of Ontario has stirred up a controversy within his own party which has at least added to the safety of the daily press. In reality, it is not without importance. Hon. Mr. Drury would enlarge the scope of the United Farmers of Ontario as a political organization, and take in "like-minded" men, even if they do happen to live in towns and cities. He has entertained the view for some time, but has become more emphatic and specific as election time draws near, and declares that the U.F.O. was never intended to be a political body. Unexpected publication of a circular letter which the premier sent out to "like-minded" men in his own party, asking for their views on supporters, brought matters to a head, and divided the U.F.O. camp, the opposition within the ranks headed by the veteran secretary, J. J. Morrison, who makes no bones about "class consciousness" and disputes the bona fides of the title "Progressive" in connection with the Ontario organization.

There was an impression in some quarters that the argument was being staged to hold Conservative farmers recalled in 1919, and attract more in urban municipalities, while the Morrison faction kept the standard of the South. The "like-minded" in the first place, it is drawing blood now. Your correspondent attended the South Huron U.F.O. picnic, where the premier virtually told Mr. Morrison to mind his own particular business, marketing butter and eggs, in reply to which Mr. Morrison has given an interview to the effect that neither Drury nor anyone else, is big enough to dictate to the U.F.O. The official organ, the "Farmers' Sun," has been "sneaking out" plan one that "no thoughtful man can fail to realize must end in ending all the work of the past few years." Judging from the attitude of Mr. Drury's auditors in South Huron and numerous interviews with other parts of the province, he has behind him a majority at least of those who are willing to be articulate on the subject.

The fact is that, whatever may have been intended, the U.F.O. did become a political organization. For the present term, soon to end, it is in power, by a narrow margin, and by grace of the Liberal party. If it falls in the coming contest, there is bound to be a certain adverse effect upon the business side of the organization. Hence the S. O. S. call, which may at last attract some friends of Hon. Mr. Drury's methods.

GET YOUR MAIL IN EARLY

The Postmaster of Red Deer wishes that the despatch and delivery of mail would be the very best of the cooperation of business firms in their own interest. Let us have a number of letters ready for mailing before noon, and at all possible. When your stenographer has a number of letters ready, sign them and have them mailed promptly. It is good for your business, and it helps the postoffice give you the service you expect and which is often hindered by your letters being mailed in quantities and in a haphazard way. Endeavor to have your registered mail at least one and a half hours before train time. Begin now.

HIS PROGRESS

"We have never heard one of the correspondence school musicians who learns to play the piano in 20 lessons," there is a claim for the Jewel Republic, "but we have heard a boy who has been taking lessons for two years and he would make a first-class pianist in holding music for a bass drummer."

HAVE YOUR REPAIRS DONE NOW!

I wish to draw attention to all who have repairing to be done to have it done before you need your wagons or sleighs for hauling in your grain. It will not cost any more to have it done now than later, and now is your opportunity time for us to do it. I carry a good supply of wood goods for the purpose.

CLOSE CHECK ON LIQUOR EXPORTS

BY OCTOBER 1ST

Ottawa Ready to Enforce New Act if Provinces Ask It

Ottawa, Ont., August 28.—More effective control of the liquor traffic as regards the privilege of exportation will be exercised as soon as the provinces avail themselves of the legislation known as the Macleod bill enacted at the last session of parliament. The operative provision of the act will not be effective until there is a proclamation by the government and this in turn is contingent upon provincial orders-in-council asking for such action. When this is complied with, the right of export of any intoxicating beverages is to be limited to distillers and brewers. It is expected that the governments will pave the way for the new law next month in preparation for its enforcement on and after October 1st, the available date mentioned in the act.

Bootleggers' Depots
In various places export establishments have been in operation. These, it is claimed, are serving little purpose apart from being supply depots for bootleggers engaging in contraband international traffic. Shipments for export even to the prohibition country to the south are not prohibited nominally, but they are practically impossible as no guarantee bond for double the duty and a certificate that the goods were landed at the port of destination are required. A landing certificate could not be secured in the United States because the effect would be seized promptly upon entry. This has been gotten over by the operation of private establishments for the export of liquor which, notably in the west, have supplied the illicit rum trade. It is impossible to keep check on their operation so long as these houses were allowed to flourish.

Will Wipe Them Out
The new legislation which links the privileges of holding liquor for export to brewers and distillers who can be checked up, will therefore wipe out a fruitful source of contraband traffic. The law which, as stated, comes into effect on October 1st, if meanwhile provincial bodies and gives effect to the prohibition of liquor of various provincial bodies or officers charged with the enforcement of the provincial prohibition enactment.

ALBERTA COAL MINERS RETURN TO WORK MONDAY

District 18 Strike in Effect Since April 1 Terminated.

Calgary, Aug. 28.—Coal miners of District 18 return to work this morning, after being out since July 1. The vote of the men confirming the agreement entered into by the officials of the United Mine Workers of America, District 18, and the Western Coal Operators' association, last Friday evening, which was taken in the union Saturday, resulted in an overwhelming majority in favor of the agreement. Complete results are not yet to hand, a few locals having yet to be heard from, but on Saturday evening about 7,000 men returned to work. The vote of the men confirming the agreement entered into by the officials of the United Mine Workers of America, District 18, and the Western Coal Operators' association, last Friday evening, which was taken in the union Saturday, resulted in an overwhelming majority in favor of the agreement. Complete results are not yet to hand, a few locals having yet to be heard from, but on Saturday evening about 7,000 men returned to work.

Saturday, Manager Dick, of the Northern American Collieries, signed up an agreement with the United Mine Workers. Since 1919 he had refused to have anything to do with the union, but hereafter his collieries will run a closed shop. The Northern American Collieries has two mines, one at Cochrane and the other at Monarch.

No mines began operations Saturday, but company men were set to work Saturday cleaning things up and making ready for resumption of operations today. It is anticipated that the mines will run steadily all winter, as coal stocks are said to be practically cleaned up.

FORD SHUTS DOWN ALL PLANTS

Hundred Thousand Are Out of Work After Sept. 15. Coal Shortage Blamed

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 27.—One hundred and five thousand employees of the Ford Motor company throughout the country will be without jobs after September 15. In addition several hundred thousand other workers employed in industries furnishing materials for the Ford plants will be affected. Henry Ford gave these figures Saturday in announcing that his three big motor plants located in Detroit, Dearborn and Ford River Rouge and his assembling plants throughout the country would close on that date because of the coal shortage.

The announcement was the most severe blow that industrial Detroit has sustained since the industrial depression of two years ago. It means, according to Mr. Ford, that 750,000 men employed in the Highland Park, River Rouge and Dearborn plants of the company here will be without work. Thirty thousand others now working in the various assembling plants scattered throughout the United States also will be thrown out of employment.

How long the machinery in the Ford plant is to be utilized will depend entirely upon the coal supply of the future, the Detroit manufacturer said.

The price of steel and other materials entered into the decision to suspend operations, Mr. Ford said, adding that he had received notice of an advance of steel prices, to be made shortly.

Strikes Kill Industry
Industry in the United States must "throw up its hands in surrender" within a few weeks, if the rail and coal strikes continue, Mr. Ford declared.

Mr. Ford held financial interests responsible for the industrial slump, declaring that "money barons" were manipulating the labor unions, and that public officials, state and national, were impotent in the crisis.

The deadlock in strike negotiations indicated, he declared, the existence of a "plot" to unload the demoralized and run-down railroads on to the government at their own price and to mistreat the people through excessive coal profits.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN HOUSE, ALBERTA

WHERE THE BIG FAIR AND STAMPEDE WILL BE HELD ON SEPTEMBER 11 & 12

Purebred stock are being introduced into the district in numbers. The faithful ox has played an important part in the development of all this western country.

Rocky Mountain House, Alberta, as it stands today, is an incorporated village at the confluence of the Saskatchewan and the Clearwater rivers on the east side of the Saskatchewan 65 miles west of the City of Red Deer and 40 or 50 miles east of the foot hills of the Rocky Mountains. It has a population of about 600 at the present time.

It is a historic spot. An old and important Hudson Bay trading post was established near the site of the present town in 1811. Histories relate the stories of the conflicts between the Hudson Bay Co. men and the Northern Trading Co. representatives in those early days. The Saskatchewan River was the main artery of trade at that time, with very little attention to the overland routes, whereas at the present time the town is served by the branches of two great transcontinental lines of railway, automobile roads and all the modern facilities for communication, such as telephones and telegraphs.

J. A. Driscoll and W. J. Kirby are rated amongst the oldest of the old-timers of the new regime, arriving there some twelve years ago and being impressed with the beauty of the location and the possibilities of the place they have been boosting for the place ever since with a remarkable degree of success. Residents of Alberta about that time may recall the large advertisements that appeared frequently in the Edmonton papers calling attention to this remarkable new town of promise. J. A. Driscoll is credited with being the arch promoter of this propaganda. It was not with Mr. Driscoll as has been the case with so many others, merely a real estate boom in which the promoter skimmed off the cream and left others with the residue. It was the conviction of a business man that he had found something and wanted to share it with others that they might mutually benefit in the transaction of legitimate business. The attitude of Mr. Driscoll is clearly demonstrated by the views on this page showing the interior of the spacious store in which he is carrying on business and the beautiful residence he has built at his home. It is rumored that Mr. Driscoll spent hundreds of dollars advertising the town in those early days.

Interior of J. A. Driscoll's Department Store, one of the leading business centres in Rocky Mountain House.

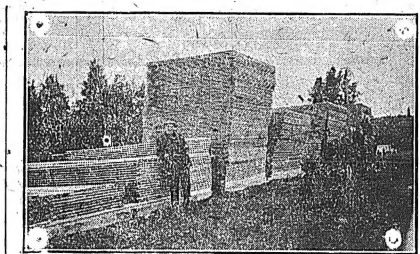

The late H. L. Gaetz and W. Fraser were also among the early residents of the town carrying on business under the firm name of Fraser and Gaetz.

Others prominent among the earlier business men of the place were A. R. Muir, and Tom Gray, who sold out to Killick some years ago, and who in turn has sold out to Wiltoms, Towler & Young, and the Grant Mercantile Co.

It was no easy task for these early business men to get their supplies, having to trail them overland from Bowden, a distance of over 10 miles as the trail ran. There were very few graded roads in the west country in those days. Direct traffic between Red Deer and the new town was impossible except when the ground was frozen good and hard on account of the muskeg between Lethbridge and Red Deer.

In their leisure moments it is possible to get some of the oldtimers to relate some of the inside history of those early times: how the bootleggers and the gamblers used to operate with very fair success at times, and the times it was no place for weak hearts when "Port Arthur Slim" was one of the prominent figures of the place and when human bodies were seen floating down the river almost every day. It is said that most of these river fatalities were due to men are developing nicely, and Rocky Mountain House is the trading and banking centre for these districts, as well as for the mining and lumbering enterprises.

Lumbering is an important industry at Rocky Mountain House. Several mills are operated in the vicinity.

The residents of Rocky Mountain House are an optimistic and progressive band of citizens. The place is bound to grow, and may develop into a city in the perhaps not very far distant future. The business places are attractive and there is good accommodation for the travelling public.

The Patronage Mill Still Grinds Another Break by Murdock

Patronage Mill Grinds

F. R. Beattie, who resigned the federal seat for East Kootenay last winter, to make a place for Hon. J. H. King, minister of public works, has been appointed to Vancouver Harbor board. Samuel Prenter, a leading Vancouver Liberal, has been given a place on the same body. There were no vacancies, but the government made two, by the simple process of asking for the resignations of Messrs. McClay and MacKenzie. Needless to say, the latter are Conservatives. In this correspondence recently, reference was made to appointment of a defeated Liberal candidate as customs officer at Vancouver, Ont. The Times, of that town, now publishes a letter of protest from Mr. C. R. Wilkinson, who regrets the passing over of a returned soldier, Mr. Harry Town. The writer recalls promises made to "our noble young men who offered their all that decency and freedom might live." Mr. Town was one of those who returned. He was wounded and gassed. His discharge papers show him to have an honorable record. His qualifications were altogether excellent. Yet he was passed over for one whose credentials consisted chiefly of political influence.

W. J. Kirby, Postmaster and President of the Rocky Mountain House Board of Trade.

UNRESTRICTED HOMAGE PAID TO SLAIN HERO

Dublin, August 27.—With imposing military honors, the body of Michael Collins, Ireland's warrior statesman, was borne this evening through the streets of Dublin and placed on a catafalque beneath the main altar of the great cathedral. Here, tomorrow morning, a solemn requiem mass will be celebrated for the repose of his soul.

Quiet Day for Mourning Sunday's total suspension of civic activities permitted the people to render unrestrictedly the homage they so wished to render to the memory of the beloved leader. Not from the metropolis alone, but from the country districts nearby there streamed to the city hall, where the body lay in state, thousands who gazed upon the features of the man to whom, more than anyone else, the people had looked for a peaceful settlement of Ireland's woes.

Streets choked by mourners They came by train, by donkey cart, by jaunting car and on foot; they choked Dublin's streets, yet, without disorder, formed in line, awaiting their turn to enter the cathedral and pass before the coffin of their comrade who had given his life in the cause of the Free State. They knelt before that coffin, beneath the flickering candles, and prayed for the eternal happiness of Michael Collins and for the advent of peace on their unhappiness.

Hon gets Initiated

"Another Murdock 'Break' "Carefully watching" has been the chief claim advanced in regard to the Government's conduct toward important federal issues which have arisen since the session. On the fuel situation, the matter was largely put up to the provinces, and a conference called by the Ontario controller and in advice to buy Welsh coal, or a supply of wood. Meanwhile, permanent force troops are being moved to the strike area in Cape Breton, and the premier is trying to explain the situation to the union. The soldiers may be equipped with some of the munitions that landed at Lewis before the election. Cancellation boards are regarding away, hearing evidence in the railway shopmen's case, while Hon. Mr. Murdock, speaker at Vancouver, doesn't sound at all confident in a declaration that the action of the U. S. Railway Labor Board in "trying to force compulsory down the throat of labor" had compelled railway workers to defy the laws of the country. This from a minister of the crown, in reference to a government body in a neighboring country.

SUCCESSFUL TOURNAMENT

At the Opening of the Red Deer Golf and Country Club

Red Deer's first annual golf tournament held at the Red Deer Golf and Country Club on Tuesday and Wednesday was an event which was even more successful than the Club had hoped.

Visitors were present from Innisfail, Lacombe, Wetaskiwin, Olds, Coronation and Bashaw, and with strong local entries the competitors were all keenly contested.

On Wednesday afternoon the premier event was the exhibition match between Messrs. Morrison and Black, of the Calgary St. Andrew's Club, and it was a game worth going miles to see.

The style and finish of these players was a delight to watch, and Mr. Morrison was heartily congratulated on making a 33, a new record for the course, the old record was 35 made by Mr. A. R. Gibson. The visitors were very complimentary that the Red Deer Club's course was one of the prettiest they had seen, and Mr. Black was particularly enthusiastic about the eighth hole which he thought was a splendid one.

The ladies of the Club had worked to the improvement of the course which will probably be acted on by the Club in the next future.

Throughout the two days the new Club house was the centre of attraction. The ladies of the Club had worked very hard in the decoration and arrangement of the large rooms and verandah, and the result much more than justified the labor expended.

Dainty curtains, flowers in profusion, and Japanese lanterns were the main features in the decoration and the club house made a very pretty picture in its rich green background.

Refreshments were served during the two days, and on Wednesday evening the ladies put up a splendid supper.

On Wednesday evening the Club entertained the visitors with an informal dance, which brought the spacious verandah of the club house into full play.

At an interval in the dancing, Mr. W. E. Lord, President of the Red Deer Golf and Country Club, presented the prizes won in the tournament, and on behalf of the Club welcomed the visitors to Red Deer.

Mr. Dillon, of Coronation, thanked the Red Deer people for their hospitality, and extended to them a cordial invitation to be present at the Coronation tournament on September 4 and 5.

Mr. A. R. Gibson, on behalf of the Red Deer golfers, expressed thanks to the visitors, particularly to Messrs. Morrison and Black, for their courtesy in coming up to play.

Mr. Black thanked the Club for the pleasure he and Mr. Morrison had had in their visit, and congratulated the Club on the excellent of the course, particularly the eighth hole.

The open event was won by A. R. Gibson, of Red Deer, by a score of 168. In the handicap Gibson was again successful in the first flight, P. Grant, Innisfail, being the runner-up. In the second flight, G. Nelson, of Red Deer, won out with Rev. Orton, of Innisfail, as runner-up.

The team championship was won by the Innisfail team, Mackenzie-Grieve, Wagner, Grant and Orton, with 365. In the Red Deer team, Gibson, McKinnon, Sorel and Welliver, taking second place with 353.

Choice cows and heifers, $3 to $3.50; good cows, $2.50 to $3; medium, $2 to $2.50; common, $1.50 to $2; canner, $1 to $1.25. Calves make up to $2.25.
